

Set Parade Route For Shrine Day

A tentative route for the big Shriner's parade on August 22 has been set up by John Haran, parade marshal. Barring further developments, this will be the route. The Shrine units will form on David St., just west of St. Peter's Catholic Church, at 1:30 p.m., with move-off time set for 2 p.m. There will be no parking on David St., from noon until after 2 p.m.

The Shrine units will make up the first section of the parade, moving east on Lakeland St. to Victoria St. at the A & P Store, then south on Victoria St. to the end, turning east on Harden St. to Main St., and turning north on Main St. to march through the business section to the swimming pool.

All moving traffic in the parade area will be shut off at 1:30 p.m. and will not resume until the parade ends at approximately 4 p.m. For this reason, Antioch residents are urged to do their shopping on Friday. Car traffic on the parade route will not be allowed during the parade. Antioch units of the parade will form at the Antioch High School parking area at 2 p.m., and fall in behind the Shrine units at about 2:30 p.m., to march through the business section on Main St. to the swimming pool.

Extra First Aid units will be on hand to assist the Antioch units, as will extra police, security officers and traffic patrol. The largest crowd that Antioch has ever hosted is expected on Shrine Day. Seventeen local units have already entered the parade, including the Girl Scouts, the Johnson Wax Band from Racine, a unit of Majorettes, the R-Lettes, an all-girl precision drill team comprising 40 girls, the Bristol Farmers' Band, the Lake Region Jaycees float, Lake Villa 4-H Girls Marching Unit, the Men of Brass from the McHenry VFW, a float from the Sunshine Laundromat and two floats from One-Hour Martinizing.

The famous Shrine marching units are a tremendous drawing card wherever they perform. One of the first-formed units is the well-known Arab Patrol.

The Arab Patrol is a precision marching unit. Their colorful uniforms are accented by a gleaming scimitar suspended from the cummerbund at their waists. It was organized in 1886 by Frank C. Roundy. His motive was to give his fellow Shriners "a group of well-drilled Nobles who carried scimitars and executed intricate movements." For 65 years, Mr. Roundy was the patrol's commander.

The Arab Patrol is divided into four active and one standby company, augmented by a drum corps and color guard. Its members, mostly business and professional men, spend one night a week drilling. Its colorful uniforms, gleaming scimitars, fast-stepping cadence and precise marching has won it plaudits from coast to coast. Not only has the Arab Patrol been one of Medina's key units in parades, but from its ranks have come many of Medina's potential footstepers. John B. Morgan, Sig Chakow, Oscar Denman, Thomas F. Seay and Harry O. Kjellberg are among them, as well as William M. Welsch, Jr., head Medina in 1964.

end of this most tuneful and original musical of Quixotic characters and tinhorn gamblers will be presented at the PM&L theater on Main St. in Antioch at 8:30 Friday and Saturday. Advance tickets are still available at 510 Lake St., or may be purchased at the box office the nights of the performances.

Burned When She Throws Gas on Fire
Lillian McCrory, 25, of Rt. 1, Salem, Wis., was taken to Zion Community Hospital by the Antioch Rescue Squad last Friday suffering from second degree burns.

Mrs. McCrory was burned when she threw gasoline on a fire. She was trying to burn branches in her yard, and when they wouldn't light properly she threw gasoline on the fire.

meet with plaza representa-

Chairman of the committee Ernest Glenn reported to the board Tuesday night that the committee had agreed with plaza representatives to vacate the 40-foot strip, with the provision that the strip should remain forever free, public, unfenced parking. Ray Toft, he said, was not in agreement with the rest of the committee. He felt that the village should only lease the land.

Glenn pointed out that he felt it was a reasonable compromise. The original agreement made with the plaza provided that the plaza could lease the land, under a perpetual lease. Under the new agreement, he said, the plaza would bear the cost of paving and maintaining the parking area, which would remain free, public parking, and the village would receive tax money for it. "I wish the village could make agreements like this with anyone—I'd be happy to vacate the whole parking lot," Mr. Glenn said at one time during the discussion. "They'd have to maintain the parking lot, for public use, and the village would collect taxes from it."

Cunningham said he was opposed to vacating the property. The original agreement was for a lease, he said. "Under the circumstances," Mayor Cunningham said, "I don't see why it shouldn't remain the property of the village."

Dr. Vermeren, who was present to represent the plaza, said that the short-term lease was not practical,

When Walpole asked that the board vacate the property, several trustees objected that they had specified that the property remain open for parking. They opposed vacating the title unless plaza owners would include a stipulation that no building be erected on the forty feet.

Mayor Cunningham appointed a committee of Ernest Glenn, Einar Petersen, Ray Toft and David Nissen to install a street light on North Ave. near the Regal China parking lot. Edgar Simonsen announced that preliminary work on Depot St. was done, and suggested that the road be given a primer coat and light seal. The matter was turned over to the street committee.

Ernest Glenn pointed out that several users of village water outside the village were not getting billed at the increased rate. Clarence Shultis, village clerk, said bills at the new rate had been sent out this month.

Regal China asked permission to hook up to the village sewers on a piece of property not within village limits. The board said they would have to first be annexed to the village.

Ray Toft, chairman of the police committee, said several questions had been brought up in regard to vehicle stickers, such as cars owned by state police, trucks housed within the village with owners living elsewhere, etc. The board agreed that any vehicle customarily housed overnight in the village should have vehicle stickers, with the exception of state-owned cars.

The board approved Saturday, August 14, as Tag Day for the Missionary Children's Home at Lake Zurich.

On the recommendation of village engineer Angelotti, the board approved plans for a storm sewer from the shopping plaza, with the provision that plans be submitted later for the portion beyond the point where the storm sewer joins the 10-inch line of the village.

Ernest Glenn made a motion that the village attorney be authorized to advertise for bids for a test hole for a new well for the village.

A motion was approved to

Stanley's Resort Scene of Brawl

Stanley Weiczorek, of Stanley's Oakland Resort at Channel Lake, and his son Eugene were attacked by about 15 young men at the resort last Sunday night.

Weiczorek said an argument started with about eight boys who came to the resort with beer they had purchased elsewhere. He said he told them to leave, and one of the boys hit him, smashing his glasses.

Later, the same youths returned with reinforcements, armed with a variety of weapons from chains to tire irons.

Weiczorek said he and his son, Gene, were beaten when they went out to stop the youths. Both were cut on the head during the melee. The young men left before police arrived.

Weiczorek signed an assault complaint against Billy Ladewig, Channel Lake. Sheriff's deputies are checking other names of some of the young men involved.

Blind To Meel At Camp Lions

The Lake County Blind Association invites all blind people to the monthly meeting of the association at Camp Lions at Hastings Lake, located on Grand Ave., (Route 132) east of Lake Villa.

The meeting will start at 2 p.m. on Sunday, August 9. Refreshments will be served. It is suggested that you bring a swimming suit.

Angelo Iovinelli, 80, of Clarendon Ave., Feller's subdivision, apparently murdered his wife, Mary, 64, either Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

Deputy Jake Repp of the Lake County sheriff's office said they received a call Wednesday morning from Paul Pacini, a next-door neighbor and brother-in-law of Mrs. Iovinelli reporting the murder.

At 9:45 a.m. the sheriff's office received a call from the state's attorney's office in Chicago reporting that Mr. Iovinelli had given himself up to Chicago police, stating that he had killed his wife.

Mr. Pacini said that Mrs. Iovinelli's son, Jack Gaggini, discovered the body when he came out to visit his mother. Mr. Gaggini lives in Chicago. He is a son of his mother's first marriage.

Gaggini had come out to celebrate his birthday, he said. His mother had invited him and his family out for a birthday dinner and to spend the day.

It was reported that Mrs. Iovinelli's death was caused by a bullet wound through her neck. Sheriff's police were in Chicago Wednesday afternoon questioning Iovinelli. The motive for the murder was not yet known.

MORE BENEFITS, MORE TAXES

"Big Brother"—the Congress of the U.S.—is all set to help us again. This time, they're going to raise our Social Security payments.

We're going to have to pay for it, of course. A little more will be deducted from our pay check each week so that senior citizens can get a slight raise in their monthly allotments—some of them will get the munificent amount of $5.00 a month more. For which everyone else who works will have to pay and pay and pay for the rest of their lives.

We can take comfort, of course in the thought that after toiling our allotted number of years, we too, can relax and bask in leisure while Big Brother sends us our princely allowance.

Or can we? The disturbing thought intrudes that the people now "enjoying" Social Security payments once thought they could live comfortably on the amount they had earned. The rise in living costs has now, according to the government, reduced them all to the state of paupers.

So it seems more than likely that by the time we reach retirement age, unless we provide for our old age ourselves, we may also find ourselves living in a state of semi-starvation. And it becomes increasingly difficult for the working man to provide for his old age. By the time he pays a small tax here and a small tax there, a whopping big tax here and union dues there, he hasn't got enough left to live on, either.

Personally, we like the suggestion of one congressman that people on Social Security be allowed to earn a considerably larger amount and still collect their Social Security. It's extremely doubtful if this would really raise the unemployment rate. Most older people would be considerably happier and much better citizens if they were allowed to earn money if they so wished and still collect what is due them. We'd rather pay increased Social Security deductions that were going to people with the energy to supplement their income to buy what they want than to feel we were supporting government investigators working to track down some poor old person who is so "dishonest" as to earn $100.00 more than Uncle Sam says he can.

The unemployment argument doesn't hold water, anyway, because these Senior Citizens would most certainly be spending the money they earned and thus boosting the economy, which everyone agrees is very necessary.

In short, maybe the U. S. Government ought to try just letting us muddle along the best we can as much as possible.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DUKIN

There is a tendency on the part of many Republican precinct committeemen and even some leaders of the Republican Party in Lake County to regard a coalition ticket in the upcoming judicial election that would include Circuit Judge Philip Yager as something new and even improper.

Perhaps a score of years ago such an eventuality in Lake County would have been unthinkable, but there have been important and far-reaching changes in the political picture here in the past decade.

Certainly Waukegan Mayor Robert Sabonjian, a political chameleon who can shift from Democrat to Independent Democrat, to Republican and back again as effortlessly as he changes his shirt, was elected to his first two terms with the open and enthusiastic support of leading Waukegan Republicans.

Probably without this precedent the idea of coalition in the judicial race would be unthinkable, but many GOP loyalists who voted for "The Rock" were surprised to find that lightning did not strike them in the municipal voting booth and they will be ready to risk lightning again.

Of course township races have been coalition contests in most areas for many years with the dominant national party putting a few of the weaker party on their own non-partisan tickets for the sake of the balance.

This policy has been so successful in the past, as a matter of fact, that many townships are resisting efforts to have the township offices elected on regular party slates.

There have been other instances of "understanding" between the two parties so the popular Judge Yager may yet succeed in getting the nod at the Republican as well as the Democratic convention.

Members of the Charles Percy family toured the courthouse in Waukegan last week, but the GOP gubernatorial nominee was not in the entourage.

Percy, who appeared willing to write-off Lake county votes earlier in the campaign when he engineered the purge of State Rep. W. J. Murphy of Antioch, has apparently made a new appraisal of the situation and is exerting strenuous efforts to smooth relations here.

And he is succeeding in some areas, particularly among some precinct committeemen who see in Percy's

Downey Needs Social Workers

Dr. W. W. Bourke, Director of the Veterans Administration Hospital, Downey, Ill., announces an urgent need for clinical social workers.

Downey is a 2487-bed neuropsychiatric Veterans Administration Hospital. It is also a teaching hospital with professional training programs in psychiatry, social work service, psychology and nursing, organized into four Psychiatric Units, an NP-TB Service, and a General Medicine and Surgical Service. Each psychiatric unit consists of three buildings; altogether, a complex of about 14 buildings are involved. Approximately 1,000 patients are under Social Work Service care at any given time.

Persons interested in the hospital and in career federal civil service employment may contact the Personnel Officer, VA Hospital, Downey, Illinois (near Waukegan).

The local banks will continue to offer this convenience to their customers until October 1, the deadline for tax payments.

election a chance to get on a state payroll.

Some of these committeemen were among Rep. Murphy's staunchest backers, but they are beginning to see things in a new light and are talking party unity and patronage at the same time.

Percy still has a long way to go, however, and his performance at the national convention when he settled for a "follow the delegation" role gained him few adherents in this area.

Percy is going to have to convince a good many people in Lake County that he is really in favor of Sen. Barry Goldwater and will support him all the way and he has to convince a lot of people that disenfranchising 19,000 Lake County voters was prudent and necessary before he can expect a substantial number of votes in Lake County.

As of now there are many close observers who see Gov. Otto Kerner carrying Lake County against Percy by a greater margin than he did against former Gov. William G. Stratton.

Cong. Robert McClory held an informal open house at his new office in the Waukegan Post Office on Saturday and attracted too many well-wishers for the small room.

Rep. McClory has been expected to use the prestige of his office to take a more positive posture in Republican party leadership in Lake County, but apparently the cares of his office have hampered him in this regard.

The Parkway Restaurant in Waukegan, normally regarded as a Republican stronghold, took on a bipartisan flavor the other night with Peter Collins, Democratic candidate for Coroner, William Hartnett, Democratic candidate for State Representative, and Democratic Leader Charles Wilson III, rubbing and bending elbows in the enemy camp.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

The United States and Canada are the most closely allied of any two sovereign nations in the world. In addition to the geography and undefended boundary which joins us, we have a mutual defense arrangement unparalleled by any other two independent nations. A high ratio of intermarriage occurs between the nationals of our two countries, millions of Canadians are employed in the United States and a great many Americans find employment in Canada. Notwithstanding these natural ties which bind us, there is concern in the Congress of the United States as well as in the Canadian Parliament relative to our future relationships, one with the other.

While all but a few Canadians are aware of the United States through newspapers, weekly magazines and particularly radio and television programs emanating from the United States, most American citizens are almost entirely unaware of the significance of Canada in our political, social and economic life.

An extremely significant series of discussions between leading educators, businessmen and public officials is taking place this year under the sponsorship of the American Assembly, a unit of Columbia University established by General Dwight D. Eisenhower when he served as president of Columbia University, and the Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

The announcement of the Interest Equalization Tax by this Administration (followed by the speedy statement that it would not apply to investments in Canada) left substantial misunderstandings in its wake. Notwithstanding the Treasury Department's assurances that this 15 per cent tax on foreign capital investments will not apply to investments in Canada, the bill contains no clear-cut exemption and a skepticism persists which affects our close economic ties.

But the Canadian Government also has been guilty of actions regarded by many as unfriendly, if not downright hostile, to American businessmen, and investors from this side of the border. Starting in 1957 with announcements by former Conservative Prime Minister Diefenbaker, this attitude has been followed since 1961 by the Liberal Minister of Finance, Mr. Walter Gordon, who seeks to impose a 30 per cent tax on large sales of Canadian stocks in the United States, and other discriminatory measures. A Canadian professor of political economy, James Eayrs, has charged that "Mr. Gordon would bite the hand that fed him."

Even more recently, the Canadian Government has adopted the "Remissions of Duty Act" which permits the forgiveness of duties on various products imported from the United States and crediting such amounts as a subsidy on Canadian products exported to the United States. While this form of subsidy applies mainly to automobile parts, it has resulted in a form of unfair competition which many American manufacturers are unable to meet. One business firm in our 12th Congressional District is adversely affected by this practice.

The report of the American Assembly meeting held in April and the subsequent report of the more recent meeting held last month in Quebec help bring out two governments and our respective citizens to a position of greater understanding. In addition, the public awareness which has resulted from these conferences can help avoid further actions of the Canadian Parliament or the United States Congress, or agencies or bureaus of either nation, which might adversely affect the close ties which join us.

Along The Way

with ANNIE MAE

Almost seems impossible to think that summer is waning when the thermometer seems glued to the 90 plus spot. However, the golden waves in the wheat fields, and the bright rosy spots on the apple trees tell us that signs of Lady Autumn are more frequent every day. And in case you haven't checked lately, chilluns, there are 28 days till the school bell rings, and exactly 121 more shopping days before Christmas!

THE LATEST REPORT: Brother, when I pull a boner, I do an outstanding job! It is the former Sue Barrett who will enter the state of matrimony with Mr. John Garland on Aug. 29, and together they have negotiated to purchase the Dwyer home in Antioch Hills. Hope that puts everything right, Sue and John, please accept my scarlet faced apologies. Doesn't it seem to you that I've been doing an awful lot of apologizing lately?

When I saw the stork fly by the other day he was carrying a medical bag! Wonder where he'll get his doctorate. Someone else wore a red face this week (misery loves company you know) was the Rescue Squad member who was fooled by the Civil Defense Siren. . . . and then Big John Teresi turned a little ruby when he discovered his petrol tank dry on the way to a golf outing!

NOTES TO YOU—Highlighting the summer social whirl were two affairs recently. First was the Joe and Helen Stenberg pool party at the Antioch Aqua Center. This has become an annual rainy event. However, when the rains ceased, we found everyone still around and ready to thoroughly enjoy a late evening dip and some more of Chef Leonard Roblin's cooking. . . . The latest social event was the cocktail and dinner party at the Lyons and Ryan homes where gin tonic and sparkling champagne touched off a delightful summer affair.

THE LAST DROP—The Elmer Ebermans have just returned from New York with that Worldly fair appearance. . . . Vicki Wilton didn't step on a nail to get that limp, it was just a tricky step! . . . methinks a certain

An Egg Isn't Always An Egg

A New York advertising agency ran a trade journal advertisement a little while ago in which they made the point that the difference between one agency and another was really just people. They did it by showing a picture of what looked like an ordinary, run-of-the-mill chicken egg. To a lot of people, an egg is an egg and they're all alike as peas in a pod (which, come to think of it, are actually all different too).

Well, they pointed out that one egg could look like any other but inside it could be a prairie owl or a Plymouth Rock or a Rhode Island Red or it could be sterile or ticking with life. Their egg turned out to contain a potential lady alligator!

Car buyers are making a mistake if they think that car dealerships are all alike, except for what appears to be slight differences in price.

Car dealerships are very different. Some stress high volume sales and play down service. Some advertise heavily with price ads, train salesmen to be aggressive and believe that the long term repeat customer is usually not worth the trouble.

Well, we DO stress service, we don't normally advertise heavily and we try to stress quality when we do. We train our salesmen to be aggressive, but in seeking out the best solution to the customer's needs in order to make a sale. Most of all we think that a repeat customer is worth all the trouble you can possibly go to to keep him.

Phew! After a broiling July, August is starting out to outdo the previous month. Thank Heaven for air conditioning.

If you need something to worry about, think about the possibilities for next winter. Temperatures seem to sort of equalize themselves over the seasons. That is, if you have a very hot summer, a cold winter seems to be indicated to bring the temperature down to an average. (This is the Kapell theory, and at least as dependable as Mother's fish.)

If it works out, I think I'll go south come Christmas.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION JOKES—IT HAD TO COME

Barry is extremely confident of victory and expects to carry all thirteen states. LBJ has a new solution for the Cuba problem. Instead of saying it's only 90 miles from Florida, he'll say it's 4,000 miles from Alaska.

Back to the heat. Highway crews were out sprinkling the tollway to keep the pavement from buckling. Bet a lot of the motorists wished they could stop and get under the cooling spray.

No now we can stop worrying about the temperature

Senior III Bible Camp will be held August 30-Sept. 4. Youths in grades 10-12 are encouraged to register for the week, if at all possible.

Vacation Trips

John, Georgia, Stanley and "Gramps" Sutherland took a three day trip to Mackinac Island last week. On the way there, they ran into a storm at Traverse City, Mich. They went across the five mile suspension bridge from Mackinac City to St. Ignace, leaving their car there and taking a ferry to Mackinac Island. On the island they took a two hour ride in a survey, stopping to see historical buildings and Old Fort Mackinac, that is preserved exactly as it looked in 1780.

Before they left on their trip Tuesday, they drove to Champaign Monday, to register Stan for College.

Georgia Matthias and her daughters, Donna and Linda, drove to Kirksville, Mo., one week of their vacation to visit their former neighbors the Hank Fish's, who live on a farm down there raising cattle. The Fish's may be remembered as the couple who did such a wonderful job with the Teen Club a couple years ago. They moved away June 13.

Last week Georgia and the girls and Georgia's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Cariveau of Chicago, drove up to Two Rivers, Wis., to visit relatives.

New Babies

Their first child, a son, Russell James, was born July 29 to Jim and Sandy Wolter of 2412 Deepth Road. The red haired young man weighed 9 pounds, 13 ounces when he arrived at Victory Memorial Hospital.

Tom and Lynn Hay of 2304 E. Briar Lane are the proud grandparents. The paternal grandparents are Mrs. Jean Stoechi and Richard Wolter. The new parents are graduates of Antioch Township High School.

Duane Rohe, and his wife, Marge, are the parents of their third child, Son, Steven Duane, was born July 10, at St. Therese Hospital, where he weighed in at an even 7 pounds.

The Rohes, former residents of Wildwood, moved to 106 N. Hawthorne Drive early in July. They have been married seven years and have another son, David Scott, 3½ years old, and Susan Elizabeth, who will be 2, on Sept. 14. We want to welcome them to the community.

On Vacation

left Saturday evening for a two week trip to New York where they will visit the Fair. Driving with them is Al Windahl of Round Lake.

Ed, Bill and your correspondent drove to Dearborn, Mich., last week, where we visited Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum. There couldn't be much more walking at the Fair than there is at the Village. Although there are 86 houses and mills to see, we only took in about 50 of them in the four hours we were there. Included in the Village are buildings closely associated with the lives of such great inventive and creative Americans as Lincoln, Webster, Foster, Burbank, McGuffey, Carver, the Wright Brothers, Edison and Ford.

There are craft shops where trades are practiced by craftsmen — blacksmith, candle molder, glass blower, miller, potter, printer, rug hooker, silk culturist, silversmith, tinsmith, and weaver.

John and Betty English of 2203 E. Sprucewood Drive went to Los Angeles, Calif., for their two week vacation. Accompanying them on the trip were John and Dean English, former residents.

Involuntary Sharing

Ralph T. Moore writes in the Oregon Voter: "The statement by a young family man caught in the act of an armed robbery in the Los Angeles area to the effect that there was nothing basically wrong in stealing from the affluent to help in the support of his wife and family well illustrates the wrong thinking that follows in the train of government subsidies of all sorts."

"To many people, this taking from those who can afford it to give to those in need has the aura of Robin Hoodism that has been popular for centuries though it violates basic property rights. Since the government can create virtually nothing, its function is limited to confis-

G.O.P. Turns Thumbs Down On Yager

Chances for Judge Philip W. Yager to be named a coalition candidate for a Circuit Court judgeship went down the drain at the meeting of the Republican Central committee at Waukegan Township High School Tuesday night.

Robert Struble, chairman of the Waukegan Township committee's organization, introduced a resolution that delegates to the convention be bound to vote only for qualified Republicans—registered and active in the Republican party for at least five years.

E. Kenney Harlan, Shields Township, introduced a resolution to table Struble's resolution. It was resoundingly voted down, and Struble's resolution was just as resoundingly approved.

The delegates to select candidates for the judgeships will meet at McHenry High School at 8 p.m. next Monday, August 10.

Grandfather To Get College Degree

Looking forward to receiving his master's degree in history from Northern Illinois University next summer is a Milledgeville grandfather who has started a new career when most men begin to plan their retirements.

He is Clair Heyer, 54, who received his bachelor's degree last fall from Shimer College, Mt. Carroll. Heyer's life-long ambition is a career in teaching or one combining teaching and historical research and writing. He has been in advertising and radio work and was owner of a company that manufactures and sells steel table and bench frames.

Heyer served as a substitute teacher at Rock Falls last spring.

Only Man In 43 Years In Nursing Class

One lone man—first in the 43-year history of the Illinois Masonic Hospital School of Nursing—will be among the 46 graduates who receive their diplomas at 8 p.m. Friday night, Aug. 7, at the annual commencement exercises in the Scottish Rite Cathedral, 915 N. Dearborn St.

He is William Edsel Butterfield of Princeton, Ill., who has completed the three-year course. He plans to pursue his career in anesthesiology through further training in a Peoria hospital.

Mary Jane Davis

"I wouldn't take anything for the three years I put in at the nursing school," he commented when asked how it felt to be the one man in a class of 46. "I rather dreaded it at first, but the girls were all helpful and cooperative, as were all the teachers."

An outstanding member of this Senior Class is Mary Jane Davis (formerly Mary Jane Shirk) of 2307 Countryside Lane, Lindenhurst.

Mrs. Davis is president of the Student Council, was secretary of her class during her junior year, and received the award for "Excellence in comprehensive nursing care" at school ceremonies which marked the beginning of her senior year.

Mrs. Davis will return to Illinois Masonic Hospital to join the nursing staff following graduation.

Hurt In Accident Recovering Nicely

Ann Bartley (Mrs. Dale), seriously injured in a car accident sometime ago, reports that she's improving steadily.

Ann is in Mercy Hospital, Janesville, Wis. She recently had surgery on her left leg, knee and ankle. More surgery will be performed.

She still has a long hospitalization ahead of her. Ann was surprised and touched by the number of people who sent cards and letters and called on her in the hospital. "The cards have dwindled lately," she said. "It's so hot, you just can't expect people to come to the hospital to visit. But everyone's been wonderful, including my own family."

Ann has a new voice, for the present—sort of hoarse and breathless. Her larynx was injured, probably when she hit the steering wheel. She says doctors assure her it will return to normal without surgery.

Ann says that the memory of the accident returned as she regained full consciousness. The car ahead of her, she says, stopped suddenly. She was unable to stop, swerved toward the shoulder, and skidded into the other lane of traffic, where she collided with a car coming from the opposite direction.

MOOSE TOPICS

FAST ACTIVITIES

Bess Wald, chairman of the Mooseheart committee for the W.O.T.M. reports that the rummage and bake sale held last Saturday was very successful.

ANNUAL PICNIC

The cooperation of the weatherman with the temperatures up in the 90's can best account for the huge success of the Annual Picnic held at the Aqua Center last Sunday.

Loyal Moose members and their guests, an estimated 200, turned out for a day of swimming and game playing. The victory of the scheduled baseball game between the Antioch Moose and the Woodstock Moose goes to our very own Antioch when Woodstock forfeited by not showing up. Could it be they just forgot?

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

The officers and appointed officers will present their Chapter Night program this Thursday evening and will be in charge of the regular scheduled meeting for the W.O.T.M. to be held at the Moose Home at 8 p.m.

They have planned a most interesting evening of entertainment along with the enrollment of new members.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moto of the Antioch Travel Agency arranged for the appearance of Mr. Charles Geisler of the Northwest Orient Airlines who will present a movie on Hawaii. More entertainment is planned but it appears to be a secret now.

More on the calendar of events will be A.B.C. Clown Club meeting to be held at the Moose Home on Sunday, August 9, at 10 a.m., followed by a regular meeting of the L.O.O.M. on Wednesday, August 12, at 8 p.m. Next Thursday, August 13, the Star Recorder committee of the W.O.T.M. will have a scavenger hunt. Members are asked to meet at the Moose Home at 7:30 p.m. and proceed from there in pairs. This promises to be an exciting evening.

An evening with your friends can be enjoyed when you take your family out to dinner to the Moose Home on Friday.

VACATION IN DENMARK

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nielsen, Sr., of Lake Villa, vacationed by visiting Mr. Nielsen's brothers and sisters in Denmark. Mr. Nielsen had not seen his family for 36 years.

By Dale E. Beckley

Dear Dale:

Is it true that Vietnamese guerilla fighters weighing only 90 pounds can shoot an arrow through an 8-inch tree at 50 yards?

Dear Ted:

It is possible. These men use crossbows made of bamboo. Mechanical devices can be used to draw the bow so the strength of the archer is not so important. In addition, some of the native trees, like the banana, are fairly soft.

Dear Dale:

How many votes for the presidency did Henry Wallace get in 1948?

Dear Robert:

Running on the Progressive ticket, Wallace got 1,166,103 votes. The total vote that year was more than 48 million.

Dear Dale:

Don't you think that a fifteen-year old girl should be allowed to choose her own wardrobe? My mother insists on coming with me every time I need even the smallest articles. How can I make her understand that I can do my own shopping?

Dear Growing Up:

A fifteen-year old must learn to develop her own tastes while spending her shopping money wisely. I do feel that at your age you should be allowed to choose your wardrobe, but your parents should have final approval. Ask your mother to give you a shopping spree all by yourself so that you can prove to her that you are capable of taking the responsibility. (Most stores allow approvals on their merchandise.) She'll probably be delighted to see how well you do!

Dear Dale:

Which heavyweight champion had the longest reach? Boxer.

Dear Boxer:

The leader in this department is Primo Carnera of Italy, whose reach was 85½ inches. Sonny Liston is second with 84 inches.

Dear Dale:

My brother and I have been trying to convince our mother that it's okay to go swimming right after eating. She always makes us wait a whole hour and by that time all our friends have gone, and we have to go alone. Please tell her that it's not necessary to wait.

David and Danny

Dear Boys:

I also have heard the rumors to the effect that it's not necessary to wait to swim after eating. However, after checking with a pediatrician, I find that most medical authorities still feel that it is definitely advisable to wait an hour. Remember boys, "Mother knows best."

Dear Dale:

What is white chocolate? Tom

Dear Tom:

White chocolate is a term used by candy manufacturers to describe a coating used in place of chocolate during the summer months. It is made with cocoa butter. This coating cannot legally be labeled as chocolate since there are minimum standards prescribed for the amount of chocolate liquor that must be present.

WAR ON POVERTY

In view of the Council of State Chambers of Commerce, the war on poverty drive would be advanced by sound fiscal measures, rather than by the Administration's program. It cites figures showing that, allowing for price adjustments, the proportion of families with cash incomes under $3,000 was reduced from 32 per cent of all families in 1950 to 25 per cent in 1955, and 20 per cent in 1962. It adds that this was accomplished primarily through the growth of the economy.

SAFETY RULES FOR SMALL BOAT USERS

The Red Cross has challenged America's 38 million small boat users to defy statistical predictions and cut drowning rates. It focuses emphasis on four primary rules of the road: When two boats approach each other at an angle, the boat on the right has the right-of-way; rowboats have the right-of-way over sailboats or power boats; sailboats have the right-of-way over power boats; boats being overtaken have the right-of-way.

Hospitalization

For Older Citizens

According to the executive secretary of the North Dakota Blue Cross programs, people past 65 do not create a problem for hospital credit departments, as severe as some politicians would lead us to believe. As an example he said that it is nowhere near as difficult as collecting for maternity cases of mothers under the age of 25.

It's real fun, it's usually inexpensive.

Jack Benny, With Violin, At Concert

Tickets for a benefit concert by Jack Benny went on sale this week.

Benny, whose comedy and violin playing ability are legend, will give the performance with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra September 28 in the West campus auditorium of Waukegan Township High school.

Proceeds from the benefit will go to The Music Center of Lake County, Inc. The Music Center is a non-profit organization that will operate classes in Bowen Park on north Sheridan Road, Waukegan, beginning this September.

Major purposes of the center are to make music an integral part of the life of every student and to develop the musical ability of each student. Teachers will be performing artists from all over the North Shore.

Tickets for the concert can be purchased through the mail. A check or money order made out to The Music Center of Lake County should accompany each check. Mail the order to the County street address and clearly print your name and return address.

Persons interested in signing up for classes or in learning about classes offered by the Center are encouraged to come to the Benny headquarters, write or telephone there.

Illinois Tax Facts

Outright repeal by Congress of the 10 per cent wartime Federal excise taxes on handbags, luggage, cosmetics, jewelry, fur garments, toilettries and an array of other articles will keep faith with the merchant and taxpayer, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois said today.

These excise taxes were passed as "temporary" war-time measures and if not soon repealed, we will have a true example of a "temporary" tax becoming "permanent." They should be repealed, and not a "temporary" transition from the retail to the manufacturing level. A crutch was never meant to be leaned on forever.

The way to get the job done is to let your Congressmen know your feeling. The repeal campaign has met with rebuff lately, but as followers of the Brooklyn Dodgers used to say, "There will be another day." Make your views known during the Fall campaign.

In this day of raising salaries, foreign aid, increased National debt, and aid to foreign consumers, why not a little aid right here for our home consumers? Repeal of such taxes will lift a burden of approximately $450,000,000 from the shoulders of our home consumers (about $40,000,000 right here annually in Illinois, according to the Illinois Retail Merchants Association). Such a saving will be translated into increased buying power and better consumer conditions and will also give the morale of the merchant a bit of a lift.

So many of the articles on which these taxes fall are not luxuries. It would be daring indeed for any man, even if he were not in the doghouse, to tell his wife that her pocketbook is a luxury. To such a claim she would probably retort, "Yes, and so are the pockets in your pants."

Outright abolitionism is the answer; transfer to the manufacturer's level is no solution. Such a transfer would only hide the taxes and lull the customers, the taxpayers, to sleep. The "repeal" of these taxes is already a plank in the Republican Party platform, and it should also be in the Democratic Party Platform, because such "sales" taxes hurt every consumer, regardless of party.

TAILGATING DANGEROUS
The Chicago Motor Club points out that a driver can't be looking very far ahead when he rides the bumper of the other fellow's car. Always allow a safe distance between your car and the car ahead.

Garden Clubs Final Meeting Scheduled

The final meeting of the summer for garden clubs affiliated with The Garden Club of Illinois, Inc., will find Mrs. Edwin S. Howitt, Libertyville, heading a large group of members in the direction of Augustine's Restaurant and Motor Lodge, Belleville, Ill. There, on August 10, in addition to lunch at 12:30 p.m., will be a conducted tour of the world renowned Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows.

The afternoon will be one of enlightenment and inspiration as Mr. Lad Cutak, Superintendent of the Climatron at Shaws Garden in St. Louis, Mo., will share his extensive knowledge about Cacti. Mr. Cutak is the author of two books and numerous articles in horticulture publications in America and abroad. He is the founder of the Cactus Society. His latest field trip, taken in 1962, included the Caribbean, Cayman Island, Honduras, Nicaragua and Jamaica, among others. Garden Clubs in District V will be hostesses and Chairman Mrs. Arthur Fischer of the district, announces that plans include honoring the city of Belleville in its Sesquicentennial year.

SMALL BUSINESS STILL FEARFUL
The Nat'l Small Business Assn. reports that despite easing of U. S. Treasury rules on depreciation, two thirds of the nation's small businesses are still not able to use the new tax procedures designed to spur capital spending, stimulate the economy and increase employment. The trouble seems to lie in the complexity of the Treasury's new depreciation guidelines and tests, along with the fear of possible further changes.

Driving-to-and-from-the-beach-in-bare-feet-is-a-favorite summertime practice of many motorists, especially teenagers. However, the Chicago Motor Club cautions that while this may work wonders for hot feet, it is a dangerous practice. It is too easy for slippery feet to slide off the brake at a vital moment and cause a serious accident. Always wear shoes when driving an automobile.

ALL ABOUT BABIES...

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

TOILET TRAINING
By Aline B. Auerbach
Director, Parent Group Education Child Study Assn. of America

Doctors advise against starting bowel training before the baby's muscular and nervous system is able to meet this demand from adults.

If you begin training too early, your child is more likely to go back to soiling later on. Also, if you start too early, you are likely to become tense and angry with your child. He may become confused and resist you. You may find out also, that you waste more time putting him on the pot than it takes to wash the extra diapers. Wait until he can show you that he is ready to have a movement and can get himself there under his own steam. Probably this will be somewhere between a year and a year and a half.

If you are patient, you will probably find that he has his own regular time and rhythm. Put him on the pot or toilet at his time and not when you think he ought to go. Don't make it all too important, but be pleased when he performs. Then he will be pleased, too, and more ready to do what you want.

Don't be surprised, though, if he lapses occasionally. Take it casually, change his pants without any scolding, and remind him to tell you the next time.

The time to begin to train a baby to be dry is difficult to set at a fixed age that would apply to all children. They vary considerably in the point at which they seem to be ready to take this step.

When your baby begins to understand what you want him to do, it's time enough to start. Then, take him to the toilet when he seems to need it. Soon he will begin to tell you when he wants to go.

Slowly he will learn that it is more comfortable to be dry, and more satisfying too, since he knows you want him that way. Scolding or punishment won't teach him to stay dry. It will only make him less anxious to please you. At the same time, he can't be expected to learn by himself. He needs you to show him the way. He may still be wet at night and perhaps during his nap for some time to come. He may be between three and four before he really stays dry all night. Only if your child wets his bed well past this age should you be concerned. If he does, talk it over with your doctor.

(For a fuller discussion of this subject and of other problems that face mothers of young children, see Mrs. Auerbach's booklet, "How to Give Your Child a Good Start," 40 cents from the Child Study Association of America, 9 east 89th St., New York, N. Y. 10028).

Alumni of ACHS To Return For 50th Anniversary

The committee in charge of planning for the 50th Anniversary of the Antioch Community High School in October has mailed out about 2,000 letters to alumni, inviting them to take part in the celebration.

Edna Radke, co-chairman with Fred Stahmer of the Anniversary celebration, reports that several letters from alumni have been received, and some interesting pictures.

The committee is planning to set up exhibits of some of the pictures at the High School, tracing as much as possible of the school from its beginning to the present day.

Some idea of the development of the curriculum of the school can be gained from a comparison of the subjects offered at the High School today with 1927. An item in the Antioch News of August 25, 1927, gives a list of subjects to be taught that year.

Freshmen subjects (1927) were English I, Algebra, Science, Latin, Foods and Agriculture.

Sophomore subjects: English II, Geometry, Ancient History, Caesar, Sewing, Design, Field Crops, Manual Training, Bookkeeping.

Junior subjects: English III, Advanced Algebra, European History, World History, Chemistry, Cicero, French, Shorthand, Typing, Farm

Mechanics, Mechanical Drawing, Bookkeeping, Music.

Seniors: English IV, American History, Chemistry, Economics, Cicero, French and Shorthand.

General subjects for all were Orchestra, Chorus, Glee Club, Physical Training, Public Speaking, Debate, Bookbinding, Music Appreciation, Penmanship, Spelling & Drawing.

Members of the committee would like to hear from any of the former alumni, and pictures connected with early years of the school will be appreciated. For further information, contact Mrs. Edna Radke, at the High School, or Fred Stahmer.

Works Toward Better Care For Retarded

An interagency conference of Lake County representatives at Dixon State School on Thursday, July 30, was another step toward improved services for mentally retarded children and adults in Lake County. The tour and conference at Dixon was sponsored by the Lake County Health Department and coordinated by Mrs. Margaret Kammer, R. N., Chief Nurse at Dixon State School.

The thirty-four members attending the conference from all areas of Lake County traveled to Dixon by bus. They represented the Lake County Mental Health Society and Clinic; Lake County office of the Illinois Department of Public Aid; Special Education Instructors; News Media; Victory Memorial Hospital Nurses; Catholic Charities, and public health nurses at the Lake County Health Department.

The Lake County agencies are coordinating efforts to provide improved services to the mentally retarded citizens within this county. Patients and their families are assisted to secure Dixon State School residence when indicated.

Dr. Baker noted that Lake County Health Department nursing services have been requested for the 37 Lake County residents awaiting admission to Dixon State School.

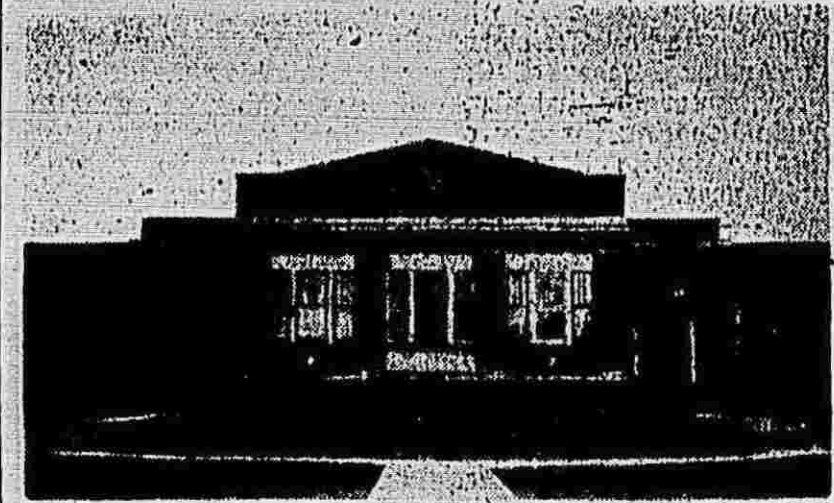

Never carry gasoline in improper receptacles or keep such containers in a closed car or trunk compartment, warns the Chicago Motor Club. Gasoline always should be carried in a metal container, properly capped.

Federal Pay Increases

Senator Strom Thurmond opposes the proposed federal pay increase bill which has passed the House. "This legislation goes far beyond providing a cost-of-living increase for the higher-level jobs. Members of Congress would, for instance, receive an increase of 33.33 per cent or even more if the Senate pushed the Congressional boosts from $22,500 to $32,500. It is my conviction that individuals offering for elective office should not be looking for financial gain."

During rainstorms says the Chicago Motor Club, traffic often splatters mud on your windshield and headlights. Remember to keep your windshield wipers in good operating condition and to wipe off your headlights at frequent intervals.

The Immortal Hot Dog

The hot dog has long been an American institution, and in all likelihood it is destined for immortality. It is inextricably related to fun—whether that fun consists of sports, picnics, carnivals, fairs, or a still newer American institution, the backyard barbecue.

The hot dog's history is full of nostalgia. According to some accounts, it made its first appearance in 1871 at a Coney Island refreshment center and was an immediate hit. It solidified its popular standing at the Chicago Columbian Exposition of 1893 where Little Egypt was the headliner. Then came 1904 and the St. Louis Exposition—and the everlasting marriage of the wiener and the elongated bun. This happened after a peddler, finding that the "red hots" were too hot to handle, provided his customers with white gloves. But profits fast disappeared with the gloves, so he hit on the idea of a bun to fit the meat.

The hot dog was off and running. It soon became a familiar sight at carnivals, exhibitions and circuses throughout the Midwest. Later it formed its loving association with baseball—a game which seems to demand that we grasp a hot dog in one hand and something cool and bubbly to drink in the other.

The hot dog has just about everything. It's succulent and cheap, and nothing does more to happily perfume the air, whatever the season. Now, we learn, it is rapidly establishing itself abroad—more American contributions to an older world!

Mr. & Mrs. Angler Of Ill. Contest At Channel Lake

ANTIOCH, ILL.—The Mr. and Mrs. (husband-wife) Illinois state fishing championship will open a 14-day run on Monday, August 10, on Channel Lake and Lake Catherine near here, according to Barney Shunneson, operator of the Channel Lake Boat House.

Shunneson is sponsoring the 3rd annual Mr.-Mrs. angling meet as well as the 5th annual Illinois state singles title meet, which will be held from Sept. 10 thru Sept. 27, also on Channel Lake and Lake Catherine.

Both meets are offering various trophies and all expense trips to Bull Shoals Lake, Ark., in October, as first prizes. The Illinois state champions will compete in the World Series of Fresh Water angling there.

All Illinois residents 16 years or older, who possess 1964 valid fishing licenses, are eligible to compete in the Mr.-Mrs. and singles meets. Eliminations in the Mr.

and Mrs. will be held from August 10 through August 22. Each day two couples will qualify, except on Saturdays and Sundays, when five teams with the most points at the end of the day's fishing will gain the finals.

The Mr.-Mrs. title fish-off is set for Sunday, August 23. All contestants in both the Mr. and Mrs. can obtain the contest rules by contacting Barney Shunneson at Channel Lake boat house. He can be reached by phone at 395-1434.

There are no entry fees. Only requirement is that contestants must register each day before going out on the contest waters. Registration is made at Channel Lake Boat House.

Sullivan & Otto Tied In Points At Wilmot Track

Kenny Tolugan of Milwaukee smashed his way into the lead and won the 25 lap feature race but all the attention was on the two point pace setters, Rodger Otto and Jim Sullivan.

As the evening of racing started, Sullivan trailed Otto by two points. In the time trials he picked up one point but lost two in the fourth heat race as Otto passed him for the third leaving Sullivan without any points in the event.

However, in the feature Otto got the jump on the restart and was ahead of Sullivan until the 22nd lap when Sullivan went by him. Otto finished third but the point span between the two positions was just enough to make the night end with the two drivers tied.

In the first race Ray Duba of Ingleside, Ill., spun and was hit by Jerry Hawkenson of Winnetka as Herman Seasmars of Milwaukee was the winner.

In the second race, Bobby Jackson of Zion, Ill., was battling for the lead with Jim Stelking but his car went out of control, hit the fence and then flipped sideways landing against the slowed car of Jess Lloyd of Kenosha. On the restart, it looked Kline was the winner but he spun and was hit by Dennis McKay of Elgin as Jim Stelking went into the lead. With only a quarter of a lap to go Stelking spun and hit the fence and Jim Bozeman of Waukegan took the win.

Two new track records were set. Tolugan's time in the feature of 53.81 mph was a track record for 25 laps and Bill Strom of Milwaukee upped his own time in the 10-lap distance as he turned in an average of 54.64 mph.

In the spectator races, Dick Alsen, of McHenry, came back to win the feature. He had been out of action all of last week and for the first part of the program Saturday night. The owner of his car had decided to take a hand at the driving, but ran into some trouble and went through the backstretch fence. Bill Swantz and Earl Rumppe won the spectator heats.

Champion Dragsters Race At Union Grove

Last Sunday at the Great Lakes Dragway, one of the nation's fastest dragsters, the "S & H Special" from Long Beach, California, raced against Wisconsin's fastest dragster.

This coming Sunday, Aug. 9, the "S & H Special," owned by Larry Stelling and driver Jeap Hampshire will again be at the Union Grove track, and will be teamed up with another California dragster, the "G B & L Special." This dragster also races in the motion picture, "Bikini Beach" and is driven by Jerry Baltes from San Diego. It is ranked No. 3 in the nation right behind Stelling's and Hampshire.

It is a consistent 195 mph dragster and has won 5 out of 6 of its races the past year. Both of these dragsters will race in open competition against all comers and in special 2 out of 3 match races against 2 other dragsters that are ranked among the nations top 10, both from Chicago.

Nationally known Jerry "Ringo" Caudle will race America's fifth ranked dragster the "Guzler" against the "S & H" entry while the 9th ranked "Speedsport Special" driven by Larry Daves goes up against the San Diego dragster.

All four of these powerful nitro fuel racers are within 5 mph of each other, and within less than 1/10 of a second difference for the 1/4 mile. A few of the other very potent dragsters that will face these four in open competition are the "Nitro holic" driven by Clarence Hay of Rockford, the "Big John" driven by Dick Burton, of Milwaukee, and the "Blue Angel" with Del Fisher, also of Milwaukee doing the driving.

Time trials start at 9 a.m. with races at 2 p.m. The dragstrip is located 12 miles north of the Illinois-Wisconsin state line.

p.m. Aug. 12, also. The Thursday Bi-State League will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday, August 13.

Cubs & Tigers In Three-Game Title Playoff

Little League players finished their regular schedule last week with Lyons-Ryan Cubs top team in the Gray Division and the State Bank Tigers leading the White Division.

The two leading teams will meet in a three-game play-off to determine the League champion. The first game is set for Tuesday, August 11; the second one, Thursday, August 13, and the third one, if necessary, Sunday, August 16.

The Cubs, coached by Bob

Gross, have tasted defeat only twice this season, once by the Giants, once by the Dodgers. Their success on the field is attributed to a strong pitching staff and a good infield.

The State Bank Tigers are coached by Gene Pogose. They made an unsuccessful try for the championship last year and after losing most of their regulars through graduation, didn't figure to get near the top this year. The team, however, formed a habit of coming through when they had to win. Tiger batters will be facing the tough pitching of Ricky Nelson, the Cubs' star southpaw, twice in the championship series, and must beat him at least once to win.

Motorists are warned that when traveling with children in the back seat of the car you should make sure all doors are closed securely. Above all, keep the children calm so they do not distract you from your important job behind the wheel.

FLIES SPREAD DISEASE

Of all the insects in the world, Musca Domestica is probably man's greatest enemy.

You know him as the common housefly, but maybe you didn't know just how serious a health threat he really is.

Flies may spread dysentery, summer or infant diarrhea, typhoid fever, tuberculosis, trachoma and polio.

For example, bacillary dysentery—a disease of the intestines—is more prevalent in the summer when the fly population is the greatest.

It has been proven that fly-contaminated milk may lead to fatal cases of infant diarrhea. Summer or infant diarrhea occurs principally under crowded, unhygienic conditions during hot weather when foods can be easily contaminated by flies.

The common housefly can spread typhoid fever by picking up the germ from unsanitary toilet facilities used by a victim of the disease or an unsuspecting "healthy" carrier.

The fly can also spread infected particles of sputum of a careless TB patient.

Trachoma blinds scores of people in Africa in epidemics spread directly by flies. This eye disease is rare in the United States. However, a number of Americans are victims of a highly contagious eye infection called conjunctivitis or "pink eye"—which can be a forerunner of trachoma if uncontrolled.

Scientific investigators have found that the polio virus can survive on the outside of a fly's body for several days. For this reason, it is believed that flies may be a contributing factor in polio epidemics.

The housefly seems especially equipped for his role as a disease carrier and he does his harmful work in two ways.

First, infected material readily sticks to the hairs and bristles on the fly's body, particularly to the adhesive organs on the bottom of his feet.

Then all the fly has to do to transmit the infected material is to land on you or on your food or the things you touch.

Second, he deposits infected material he has eaten through his wastes.

It's an obvious conclusion, therefore, that you're living with danger if you're given the housefly a home. So to rid your house of flies and protect your health, follow these rules:

1. Wrap all garbage and keep garbage cans covered.

2. Store unused food.

3. Wipe up spilled foods immediately.

4. Transfer staple foods from boxes to this and jars.

5. Spray insecticides in the corners of your kitchen.

6. Keep your bathroom spotless.

7. Repair holes in window and door screens.

There is no time for day dreaming while driving a car. Failure to pay complete attention to the job of driving is a serious mistake and an underlying cause of many traffic accidents.

Watch Those Bulges!

State highway maintenance crews are working overtime to repair pavement bulges and blowups caused by severe hot weather conditions, according to the Illinois Department of Public Works and Buildings.

The report said that the damage is confined chiefly to the northern two-thirds of the state in areas where heavy rainfalls followed by extremely hot weather have occurred in recent weeks. In recent years the summer weather damage to pavement has usually been limited to older types of pavements in Illinois but engineers are reporting damage this year to newer roads, some of which have been in use only three to six years.

Where Your Tax Money Goes

Congressman Abele of Ohio has looked into some of the more unusual federal appropriations of our tax money. As recounted by the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho, here are a few:

$16,200 for a study of society and demography in ancient Babylonia.

$30,000 to look into the social behavior of ants.

$2,100 to look into the behavior pattern of barren ground caribou.

$20,000 to try to learn about communication signals in birds.

$13,700 to study the social structure in Madagascar.

$65,400 to examine the behavior and ecology of the wandering albatross.

These studies are of specialized value. But it is difficult to see how they are the responsibility of the federal government. They represent the spirit of thing that is, and should be, undertaken by universities, foundations and the various private research centers.

The amounts involved, it will be argued, are small. But a total of all the extracurricular activities, so to speak, that the government now supports would reach a mighty impressive figure. Economical government can be achieved only if every non-sensical expenditure is eliminated—whether the sum involved be $10,000 or $10 million and whether the project involves a power plant or the social behavior of ants!

Let the Users Pay

Back in 1963, the Post Office Department inaugurated a policy of moving first-class mail by air on a space available basis. In other words, if you happened to be lucky, your 5-cent stamp gets you 8-cents worth of carriage. It was argued that an overall economy in mail transporting costs would result.

Now the General Accounting Office, which is the watchdog of federal spending, has reviewed the airlift program for 1960-61. And it has found, and has so reported to Congress, that the Department has incurred unnecessary costs because of the airlift. Specifically, it says, rather than reducing costs by a predicted $212,000 a year, expansion of the program has increased them by more than a million, or by about 85 per cent more than the costs of surface transportation. The GAO also noted that there was airlift service on certain routes on week-ends and at certain other times when existing surface transportation could provide the same service at substantial reductions in the Department's transportation costs.

It seems only reasonable that those who want their mail to be airlifted be required to stick on the proper postage. Surface transportation of regular mail—which is primarily provided by the railroads with their huge fleets of mailcars—is efficient, economical, and capable of meeting any demand as the almost incredible job done at Christmas time attests year after year. The sole advantage of the airlift is speed and that is only a factor when great distances are involved. And those who find a need for speed should pay for it.

Confusing the Confusion

There is little doubt that the attitude of the American people toward foreign aid as now constituted has been changing and hardening. This does not mean that the nation is going isolationist; it does mean that there is more and more reasoned doubt that the mere spending of limitless billions will really add to the strength and influence of this nation abroad, and there is an equally reasoned feeling that the many countries on the receiving end of aid are sitting on their hands and doing very little to help solve their own problems.

This attitude certainly applies to aid for military assistance as well as for economic development and related purposes.

Moreover, the overall aid program seems to have gotten almost completely out of hand. According to Representative Passman, who is chairman of the Foreign Operations Subcommittee on Appropriations, 26 federal agencies are now dispensing some type of foreign aid, and the total for this fiscal year may exceed $7 billion, not including interest on borrowed money. He adds: "It is fantastic but true that our government will be dispensing funds during Fiscal 1965 in 99 nations and 9 territories. Furthermore, this uncontrolled and apparently uncontrollable program now has 71,416 people, including participants, on its payroll. It has reached such proportions that even the confusion is confused."

Foreign aid—in scope, kind and dollars—is destined to be a major politico-economic issue in this country—an issue which soars beyond mere partisan considerations.

An Industry Corrects Pollution

The tankers which ply the oceans with their vast loads of oil serve a vital need. But, as with just about everything else connected with human material progress, a problem has followed—that of water pollution.

Now a great oil company (Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey) which does business the world around announces that it has developed and adopted techniques which can eliminate 95 per cent of the pollution associated with the transportation of oil by ocean tankers.

The trick lies in new and novel shipboard procedures. Briefly, these ban the discharge of oil wastes overboard by the vessels. The wastes are treated aboard ship with a chemical that separates the oil from salt water. The oily residue may then be disposed of on shore. Six different plans, of which one will be effective for every circumstance, have been devised and provided tanker captains.

Experience has proven the practicality of this program. As of a recent date, more than 1500 cargo deliveries involving more than 46 million tons of oil had been handled with an almost complete elimination of sea pollution.

This is an important matter indeed in light of the fact that last year tankers transported more than 700 million tons of oil across the oceans of the world. And it is another of the endless examples of how private enterprise, on its own volition, attacks the problems that arise in the course of its operations.

If two men agree on everything, you may be sure that one of them is doing all the thinking—Lyndon B. Johnson.
